Appendix 1-A

State of Washington v. Dane Matthew Williams

The Defendant, Dane Williams, is presently charged with First Degree Rendering Criminal Assistance under Cause No. 00-1-00191-1.

The Plea Agreement is as follows:

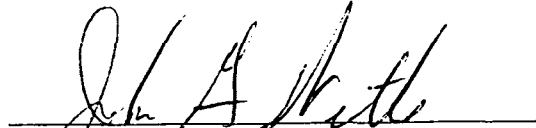

1. The defendant, Dane Williams, will plead guilty to First Degree Rendering Criminal Assistance in Stevens County Superior Court.
2. The defendant will provide information and answer questions of law enforcement as to the details leading up to and including the murders of Nicholas Kaiser and Joshua Schaefer, the subsequent actions of John Grange and Jeff Cunningham including the disposal of the victims, their property and evidence of the crimes. The defendant will also provide information as to the attitudes of John Grange and Jeff Cunningham before and after the murders. The defendant will cooperate with law enforcement up to, during and after any hearings and trials of John Grange and Jeff Cunningham.
3. The defendant will testify truthfully and honestly at any hearings or trials as to the facts and circumstances surrounding the murders of Nicholas Kaiser and Joshua Schaefer.
4. The defendant has an offender score of 0 and a standard range of 6 months to 12 months. The State will recommend 12 months, restitution, crime victim's fund, court costs, attorney fees and one year community supervision.
5. ~~If the defendant's offender score is 1 and the standard range is 12+ to 14 months, the state will recommend 12+ with credit for time served and when the defendant becomes eligible for work release, it will be the State's recommendation that it be served in Clark County.~~
6. The defendant may argue to the Court for a sentence under the 12 month sentence recommended by the State.

The state now agrees the Snohomish county conviction 3/20/98 was a gross misdemeanor of attempted theft 2.
